
Language Testing. Testing is not teaching testing activities must be different from teaching activities and testing must provide information for better and more effective teaching and learning in the classroom cf.